

AAEI Tysons, VA Benchmarking Roadshow

March 20, 2025

8:30 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.

1751 Pinnacle Drive, Tysons, VA

Join Us in Tysons, VA for the AAEI Industry-Wide Benchmarking Roadshow

Trade policies and regulations are shifting at an unprecedented pace under the new administration. Now more than ever, the trade community must come together to exchange insights, address shared challenges, and develop strategies to remain compliant and competitive.

The AAEI Benchmarking Roadshow in Tysons, VA provides a unique opportunity and forum for trade professionals to discuss, collaborate and tackle today's most pressing regulatory issues:

- New Tariffs & Retaliatory Measures – What could new tariffs under the Trump administration mean for your supply chain?
- Export Controls & Sanctions (ITAR/EAR) – How can companies navigate evolving export restrictions and new sanctions?
- Partner Government Agency (PGA) Compliance – What are the best internal strategies for managing complex regulatory requirements?
- Community Matters: This event is more than a discussion—it's an interactive forum where professionals share real-world experiences, best practices, and solutions to navigate the ever-changing trade landscape.
- Special Presentation: Stay after lunch for a special presentation by Fluet on Navigating Sanctions and Export Compliance in a High-Risk Climate. (Hybrid)
